THE INNERWILL LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE WELCOMES NEW FACILITATOR

-- Wendy Berenson announced as the newest member of the InnerWill team--

RICHMOND, Va. (March 20, 2018) — Wendy Berenson has joined the InnerWill Leadership Institute team as a facilitator following a 17-year tenure at Cherry Bekaert, LLC. In her capacity as a facilitator, Berenson will deliver InnerWill’s Values Based Leadership development programs to a variety of clients.

“I know she will bring infectious energy and positivity to the team,” said InnerWill President Dr. Thomas Epperson. “Her experience and commitment in her past endeavors demonstrates her lifetime of dedication to building more confident and conscientious leaders, which coincides perfectly with the mission behind InnerWill.”

In her previous position, Wendy served as a human resources senior leader for Cherry Bekaert, LLC, the nation’s 25th largest public accounting firm. In this position, she gained a wide array of relevant experience, including developing leadership strategy, leadership coaching and counseling, risk aversion, employee relations and executive coaching.

“Values Based Leadership has always been incredibly important to me, and I am thrilled to join an organization that prioritizes spreading the message and benefits on such a grand scale,” said Berenson. “I am most looking forward to helping clients understand just how crucial great leadership is to the entire structure of an organization, and working with managers to help them retain engaged, motivated and passionate employees.”
